Ah, Mr. Mayor, I'm glad you're here.
Yes, I'm sure you are.
Now, I'm sure you're aware of the recent spate of robberies

Ah, Mr. Bond, I've been expecting you.
Please, come in.
Would you like some tea?
Or perhaps you prefer coffee?
Tea, please.
Milk and sugar?
Just milk.
Oh, I'm sorry, I'm all out of milk.
Sugar?
Yes, please.
Here you are.
Thank you.
Now, Mr. Bond, I'm sure you're wondering why I've asked you here.
Yes, I am.
I'm afraid I have some bad news.
Oh?
Your friend, Mr. Leiter, has been kidnapped.
Kidnapped?
Yes, I'm afraid so.
By whom?
I'm not sure.
But I have a feeling it's the same people who kidnapped my daughter.
Your daughter?
Yes, she's been missing for a week now.
I'm very worried about her.
I'm sorry to hear that.
Thank you.

Ah, Mr. Fantastic, I've been expecting you.
Yes, I'm sure you have.
Please, sit down.
I'll stand.
Suit yourself.
Now, I'm sure you're wondering why I've brought you here.
Actually, I'm wondering why you're still alive.
Ah, yes, I suppose I owe you an explanation.
Yes, I suppose you do.
Well, it's a long story.
I've got time.
Very well.
It all began when I was a child.
I was born in a small village in the mountains.
My parents were poor farmers.
We had little money, but we were happy.
One day, a traveler came to our village.
He was a wizard.
He saw my potential.
He offered to take me as his apprentice.
My parents agreed.
I left my home and went with the wizard.
He taught me many things.
He taught me how to control my powers.
He taught me how to use my mind.
He taught me how to see the future.
He taught me how to see the past.
He taught me how to see the present.
He taught me how to see everything.
I learned quickly.
I was a good student.
I was his favorite.
He loved me like a son.
I loved him like a father.
We were inseparable.
We were the best of friends.
We were the best of teachers.
We were the best of students.
We were the best of everything.
One day, he died.
He was old.
He was sick.
He was dying.
I was sad.
I was very sad.
I was the saddest person in the world.
I missed him.
I missed him very much.
I still miss him.
I will always miss him.
He was my father.
He was my teacher.
He was my friend.
He was my everything.
After he died, I left the village.
I left the mountains.
I left my home.
I left my family.
I left my friends.
I left everything.
I went to the city.
I went to the big city.
I went to the biggest city in the world.
I went to New York City.
I went to the Big Apple.
I went to the city that never sleeps.
I went to the city that I love.

Ch. 16 of 21 Corinthians 16:1 Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, so also do you. 2 On the first day of the week let each one of you lay something aside, storing up as he may prosper, that no collections be made when I come. 3 And when I arrive, whomever you approve by letters, I will send these to carry your gift to Jerusalem. 4 But if it is fitting that I also go, they will go with me. 5 Now I will come to you when I pass through Macedonia, for I do pass through Macedonia. 6 And it may be that I will remain, or even spend the winter with you, that you may send me on my journey wherever I go. 7 For I do not wish to see you now on the way; but I hope to stay a while with you, if the Lord permits. 8 But I will tarry in Ephesus until Pentecost. 9 For a great and effective door has opened to me, and there are many adversaries. 10 Now if Timothy comes, see that he may be with you without fear; for he does the work of the Lord, as I also do. 11 Therefore let no one despise him. But set him forward on his journey in peace, that he may come to me; for I expect him with the brethren. 12 As for our brother Apollos, I greatly desire him to come to you with the brethren; but his will was not at all to come now; however he will come when he has a convenient time. 13 Watch, stand fast in the faith, be brave, be strong. 14 Let all your things be done with love. 15 I urge you, brethren—you know the household of Stephanas, that it is the firstfruits of Achaia, and that they have devoted themselves to the ministry of the saints— 16 that you also submit to such, and to everyone who helps with the work and labors. 17 I am glad about the coming of Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus, for what was lacking on your part they supplied. 18 For they refreshed my spirit and yours. Therefore acknowledge such men. 19 The churches of Asia greet you. Aquila and Priscilla greet you heartily in the Lord, with the church that is in their house. 20 All the brethren greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. 21 I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand. 22 If anyone does not love the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be accursed. O my Lord, come! 23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. 24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

Ah, Mr. Wayne, I've been expecting you.
Who are you?
Who I am is not important.
Who I represent is.
Who do you represent?
Who I represent is not important.
What is important is that I have a message for you.
Then deliver it.
I'm afraid it's not that simple.
Why not?
Because I'm not going to tell you.
